

Key Points

A. How will creating a Cabinet help President Washington do his job and Chief Executive?

B. Have you ever heard of the US Army being used to make sure people pay their taxes? Why would Washington take these extreme steps?

Precedents Set by President Washington

1. Creating a Cabinet

- Department of _____ - _____
(Secretary of Treasury)
- _____ Department - _____
(Secretary of State)
- _____ Department - _____
(Secretary of War)

2. Setting up the Judicial Branch

- Washington set up the _____
- 1 Chief Justice and 5 Associate Justices
- _____ is first Chief Justice

3. Demonstrating the strength of the Federal Government

Whisky Rebellion of 1794

- Congress passed a _____
- _____ in Pennsylvania _____ and _____ _____ to stop rebellion and _____ the tax.
- Washington showed the _____ _____ government

4. Government helping to strengthening the Economy

- Sec. of the Treasury, _____ developed a 4-part plan to help _____
_____.
- This was the first time the _____ government stepped in to help the _____.

Key Points

C. Explain why Washington chose neutrality as a foreign policy? Was it the best choice? Why or why not?

D. How would the young United States benefit from avoiding becoming involved with the problems in Europe?

5. Establishing Foreign Policy

- In 1793, _____ go to war.
- France expects _____ with them since they helped us fight against the British in the American Revolution
- Washington chooses _____
 - Washington decided to remain neutral (_____) to keep _____ from the problems of Europe.
 - He declares that Americans will not help either France or Britain

6. Washington Only Serves Two Terms

- Washington decided to _____ and then step away to allow another to serve.
- He delivered a speech _____ to the incoming president and to the American People known as his " _____ "

7. Washington's Farewell Address

- Advises the U.S. _____ with other countries that might lead the U.S. into war.
- Warns against _____ - they only lead to "jealousies and false alarms"

Summary:

